PRIVACY STATEMENT

Thrasher & Chambers considers CUSTOMER PRIVACY fundamental to our relationship to our clients. We are absolutely committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity, and security of our clients' personal information. Since 1955 it has been our policy to respect the privacy of former and current clients to protect the personal information that is entrusted to us. We will continue to maintain internal security procedures to protect your confidentiality, while still providing you with the most knowledgeable and efficient service possible.

We do not disclose nonpublic information about our clients, or former clients, to any nonaffiliated parties, except as permitted by applicable law or regulation. In the normal course of serving our clients, information we collect may be shared with companies that perform various services such as transfer agents, custodians, broker-dealers, and marketing service firms as well as with other financial institutions that are engaged in financial services businesses in connection with the servicing of client accounts.

The organizations that receive client information will use that information only for the service required and as permitted by applicable law or regulation, and we are not permitted to share or use this information for any other purpose.

Access to customers' nonpublic information is restricted to employees, agents or other parties who need to access that information to provide products or services to clients. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard clients' nonpublic personal information.

Please also note that we have a Business Continuity Plan in place and will provide a copy of this plan to any client upon request.

If you have any questions concerning this Privacy Policy, please feel free to contact us at the letterhead phone or address.
